Westie With arning

Students examine and create fantasy texts. They also examine media texts.

When they read, they are inferring what the author means and developing their vocabulary.

Science How do animals and plants adapt and survive in their environments?

udents continue to develop and refine their summing

Maths

Students apply mental and written computation strategies. They order and compare fractions, decimals and percentages.

and numbers.

HASS

How do communities function ensuring that the environment can

They calculate measurements and be sustained for the future. continue patterns by calculating with money

Japanese

Arts

their understanding of basic terns and responses to specific criverbal and written communi- teria. cation.

Students begin to develop Students develop movement pat-

> Yr 5/6 lerm i